PowerOffice provides clean and reliable backup power, not only for your high performance computer but for all the system peripherals which are an essential part of the modern office's electronic environment, such as fax machines, scanners, printers, modems, multi media sound systems, cameras and telephone systems.

PowerOffice has the highest level of protection for it's configuration on the market today, giving you a powerful UPS, a Surge/Spike Suppressor and an outlet extension block all in the same incredible product! No other UPS product available on the market today can offer you this kind of value and performance.

PowerOffice protects your computer against spikes, surges, voltages sags, noise, lightning and full power outages. Your PowerOffice is made even smarter and more powerful when integrated with the UPS management shutdown software. This allows you to see real time power and UPS status while providing automatic controlled shutdown in the event of a prolonged power failure.
